

JWT authentication

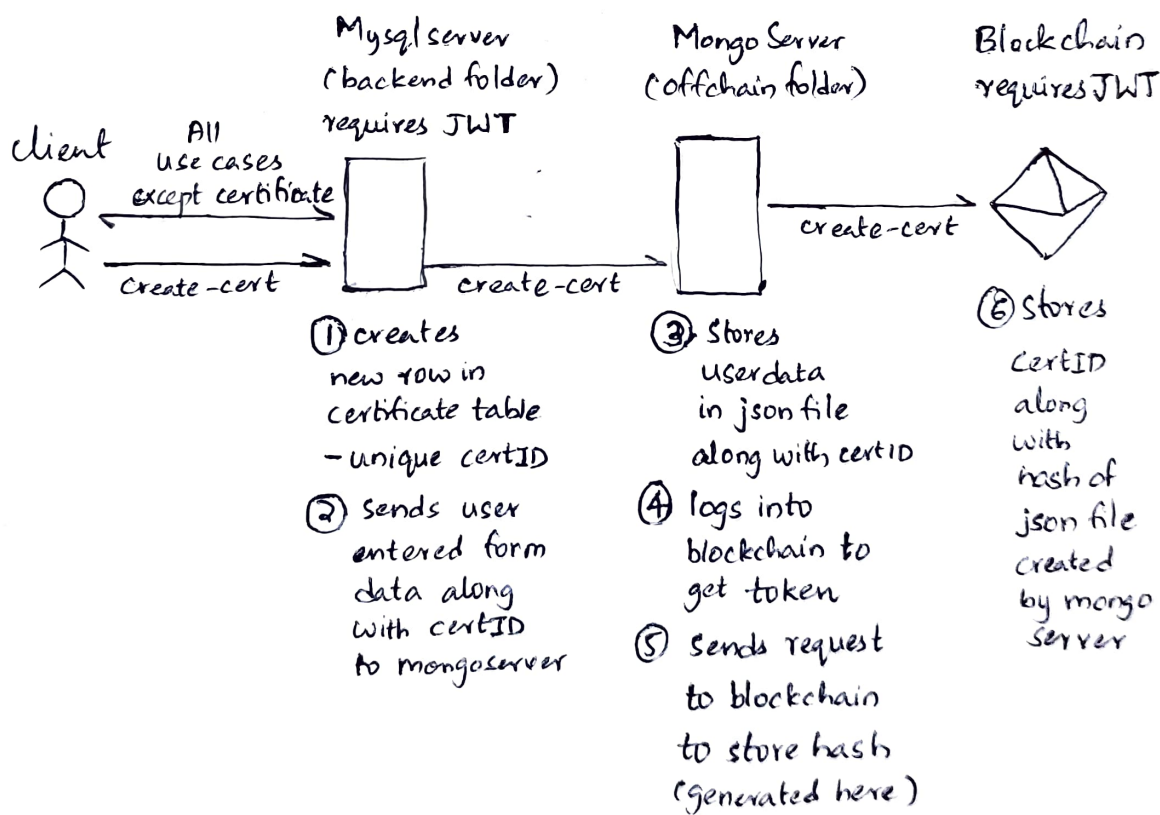

- except login and signup, all other requests to this type of server need JWT bearer token in their request header (client side)

- See dashboard.html for example

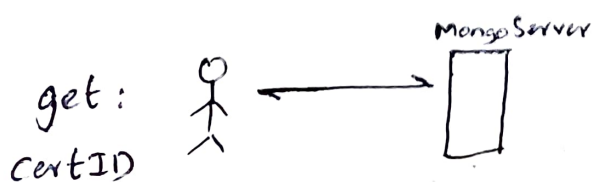

headers.append("Authorisation", "Bearer "+token)

- This bearer token is sent from the server during login and the client can store it in session storage - can be used in subsequent requests.

Flow of Requests

For download-cert :

For gethash of certificate

